Grand Ballroom: Originally the Gettysburg National Bank built in 1814, this space maintains its original class and elegance, featuring an exquisite, 28' hand-painted ceiling, inlaid with gold and accentuated with the original Grecian border. As the largest of our event spaces, the ballroom's impressive bank vault and 19th-century chandeliers add to the charm and character of this historic space, while the portable dance floor makes the room versatile for your dream wedding.

- Rental Fee: $0 with booked reception to take place in the Grand Ballroom
- Eisenhower Room: If you plan for a moderate sized wedding and prefer a less formal space, then our Eisenhower Room is right for you, seating a maximum of 130 guests.
 - Rental Fee: $250++
- College Room: If an intimate ceremony is your preference, then may we suggest our College Room? The room offers floor to ceiling windows which overlook the town square. The space is bright and lovely, the perfect setting for an elopement or ceremony for under 30.
 - Rental Fee: $250++
- The Gettysburg Lincoln Railroad Station: Conveniently located two doors down from the Gettysburg Hotel, offers a unique option in their covered pavilion behind the building. The Railroad Station is best known as the location where Abraham Lincoln arrived when he gave the Gettysburg Address and would be the perfect starting point on your new journey together. The pavilion seats up to 160 guests under cover.
